

War Memorials Online workshop

Dates: Tuesday 26th September 2017
Venue: The Mount Business and Conference Centre,
2 Woodstock Link, Belfast, BT6 8DD

Welcome

Session 1: Introduction (10-11am)

Introduction to War Memorials Trust, War Memorials Online, and identifying condition.
Run by Brogan Warren and Rachel Reese from War Memorials Trust

Tea/coffee break
(11am-11.20am)

Session 2: Registering, exploring and searching War Memorials Online (11.20am-11.50am)

Staff will be on hand to answer any questions whilst you work on the computers

Session 3: Site Visit to Belfast Willowfield war memorial (11.50am-12.45pm)

Group to visit Belfast Willowfield war memorial to undertake a condition survey

Lunch (12.45pm-1.30pm)

Lunch at The Mount Business and Conference Centre

Session 4: Adding a condition survey to War Memorials Online (1.30pm-2pm)

Staff will be on hand to answer any questions whilst you work on the computers

Session 5: Presentation- 'What happens next?' (2pm-2.45pm)

Peter Lloyd, War Memorials Trust, presents what happens at the Trust once reports have been submitted and provides information on grants.

Questions related to conservation and grants should be asked here.

Session 6: Final Q&A with tea/coffee (2.45pm-3.30pm)

An opportunity for you to ask any final questions whilst War Memorials Trust will outline what you can do to get more involved with war memorials

Workshop concludes